

High-efficiency equipment designated for blasting and deburring of the cast, stamped or bleached pieces of steel, iron, aluminum, etc. There are many models available with different width and height passages.

Features

- Fast: all faces blasted in only one operation.
- Practical: works with different shapes without demanding set-up.
- Finishing: there's no shock between products during the process.
- Loading: can be manual or automatic.
- Power: works from 2 to 8 blast wheels.
- Efficiency: blast wheels with power from 5 to 75 HP.
- Customized: the high-efficiency blast wheels are properly positioned for each application.
- Quality: it has a frequency inverter in the mesh wire belt that is produced in manganese steel.